

teaming

All architects collaborate with owners and engineers throughout the life of the project. RDG Planning & Design brings a special talent of being able to collaborate with other architects, splitting the architectural service and fee, for the betterment of our early learning projects across the country. The following list identifies our early learning teaming efforts and you can see the very successful projects created as a result of these efforts. Local representation where it is necessary, national skill and capability where it is necessary.

Projects	Year	Firm Association
Educare of Tulsa 1, 2 & 3	2005, 2008, 2010	KKT Architects
